

NIRANJAN PARIYAR & REBIKA PARIYAR

We thank God for His grace and faithfulness in the lives of Mr. Niranjana Pariyar and Rebika Pariyar, who have successfully completed their Bachelor of Theological Studies and practical ministries. Throughout their years of training, they have demonstrated a sincere commitment to God's Word, faithful service, and a growing passion for Christian ministry.

Following their graduation, Niranjana and Rebika plan to return to their church called Grace Church in Kurintar, Chitwan, Nepal, where they sense God's calling to serve among their own people and community. As they step into active ministry, they desire to dedicate their lives to preaching the Gospel, teaching God's Word, discipleship, evangelism, and serving the local church according to the gifts and opportunities God provides.

The church in Kurintar has a need for dedicated workers, and they are prayerfully preparing to serve there full-time. However, the financial needs of ministry are greater than they can provide on their own. Therefore, they are seeking partners who will stand with them in prayer and financial support as they begin this new chapter of service.

They humbly request your consideration of a $150 monthly contribution. Your generous support would help meet essential ministry and living expenses, allowing them to focus more fully on the work that God has called them to do. Through your partnership, you will be helping advance the Gospel and strengthen the ministry of the local church in Chitwan.

EVANGELICAL
CHRISTIAN
COLLEGE

ABHISHEK GHALAN & RAMESH GOLE

We thank God for His grace and faithfulness in the lives of Mr. Abhishek Ghalan and Mr. Ramesh Gole, who have successfully completed their Bachelor of Theological Studies and practical ministries under the pastoral leadership of Ps. Nischal Thing. Throughout their years of training, they have demonstrated a sincere commitment to God's Word, faithful service, mission, and a growing passion for Christian ministry.

Following their graduation, Abhishek and Ramesh plan to serve the people of Hetauda, Makawanpur, Nepal, where they sense God's calling to minister among the local community. As they step into active ministry, they desire to dedicate their lives to preaching the Gospel, teaching God's Word, discipleship, evangelism, church planting and serving the local church according to the gifts and opportunities God provides.

The community and local church in Hetauda have a great need for dedicated workers, and both men are prayerfully preparing to serve there full-time. However, the financial needs of ministry are greater than they can provide on their own. Therefore, they are seeking partners who will stand with them in prayer and financial support as they begin this new chapter of service.

They humbly request your consideration of a $150 monthly contribution. Your generous support would help meet essential ministry and living expenses, allowing them to focus more fully on the work that God has called them to do. Through your partnership, you will be helping advance the Gospel and strengthen the ministry of the local church in Makawanpur.

EVANGELICAL
CHRISTIAN
COLLEGE

DANIEL MOKTAN & NABRAJ MUKTAN

We thank God for His faithfulness and grace in the lives of Mr. Daniel Moktan and Mr. Nabraj Moktan, who have successfully completed their Bachelor of Theological Studies and practical ministries under the pastoral leadership of Ps. Kamal Thapa. During their years of theological and practical training, they have demonstrated a sincere love for God, commitment to His Word, and a growing passion for Christian ministry.

Following their graduation, Daniel and Nabraj plan to return to their home churches in Hetauda and Chitwan, Nepal, where there is a genuine need for faithful workers in the ministry. They believe that God has called them to serve their local churches through preaching, teaching, discipleship, pastoral care, evangelism, and other areas of Christian service.

As they step into full-time ministry, they face financial challenges that they are unable to meet on their own. In order to faithfully fulfill God's calling and continue serving His people, they are prayerfully seeking ministry partners who will stand with them through prayer, encouragement, and financial support.

Therefore, they humbly request your consideration of a $150 monthly contribution. Your generous support will help provide for their basic ministry needs and enable them to dedicate themselves more fully to the work of the Gospel in their communities. Through your partnership, you will be joining them in advancing God's Kingdom and strengthening the local church in Nepal.

EVANGELICAL
CHRISTIAN
COLLEGE

RAJ GURUNG

We thank God for His grace and faithfulness in the life of Raj Gurung, who has successfully completed his theological studies and practical ministry. Throughout his years of training, he has demonstrated a sincere commitment to God's Word, faithful service, and a growing passion for Christian ministry.

Following his graduation, Raj plans to serve in the hills and Himalayas of Gorkha, Nepal, where he senses God's calling to minister among the people and communities of that region. As he steps into active ministry, he desires to dedicate his life to preaching the Gospel, teaching God's Word, discipleship, evangelism, and serving the local body of believers according to the gifts and opportunities God provides.

The region of Gorkha has a need for dedicated workers, and Raj is prayerfully preparing to serve there full-time. However, the financial needs of ministry are greater than he can provide on his own. Therefore, he is seeking partners who will stand with him in prayer and financial support as he begins this new chapter of service.

He humbly requests your consideration of a $150 monthly contribution. Your generous support would help meet essential ministry and living expenses, allowing him to focus more fully on the work that God has called him to do. Through your partnership, you will be helping advance the Gospel and strengthen the ministry across the hills and Himalayas of Gorkha.

SAMUEL THING & DEEPA BLON

We thank God for His grace and faithfulness in the lives of Mr. Samuel Thing and Deepa Blon, who have successfully completed their theological studies and practical ministry. Throughout their years of training, they have demonstrated a sincere commitment to God's Word, faithful service, and a growing passion for Christian ministry.

Following their graduation, Samuel plans to serve the people of Raksirang, and Deepa plans to serve the people of Parsa, Nepal, where they sense God's calling to minister among these respective communities. As they step into active ministry, they desire to dedicate their lives to preaching the Gospel, teaching God's Word, discipleship, evangelism, and serving the local churches according to the gifts and opportunities God provides.

The regions of Raksirang and Parsa have a great need for dedicated workers, and Samuel and Deepa are prayerfully preparing to serve there full-time. However, the financial needs of ministry are greater than they can provide on their own. Therefore, they are seeking partners who will stand with them in prayer and financial support as they begin this new chapter of service.

They humbly request your consideration of a $150 monthly contribution. Your generous support would help meet essential ministry and living expenses, allowing them to focus more fully on the work that God has called them to do. Through your partnership, you will be helping advance the Gospel and strengthen the ministries of the local churches in Raksirang and Parsa.

NEER THING & KUMARI MUKTAN

We thank God for His grace and faithfulness in the lives of Mr. Neer Tamang and Kumari Muktan, who have successfully completed their Bachelor of Theological Studies and practical ministries. Throughout their years of training, they have demonstrated a sincere commitment to God's Word, faithful service, and a growing passion for Christian ministry.

Following their graduation, Neer plans to serve the people of Namtar, Kailash, and Kumari plans to minister to the people of Chitwan, Nepal, where they sense God's calling to work among these respective communities. As they step into active ministry, they desire to dedicate their lives to preaching the Gospel, teaching God's Word, discipleship, evangelism, and serving the local churches according to the gifts and opportunities God provides.

The communities in Namtar, Kailash, and Chitwan have a great need for dedicated workers, and Neer and Kumari are prayerfully preparing to serve full-time. However, the financial needs of ministry are greater than they can provide on their own. Therefore, they are seeking partners who will stand with them in prayer and financial support as they begin this new chapter of service.

They humbly request your consideration of a $150 monthly contribution. Your generous support would help meet essential ministry and living expenses, allowing them to focus more fully on the work that God has called them to do. Through your partnership, you will be helping advance the Gospel and strengthen the ministries of the local churches in Namtar, Kailash, and Chitwan.

EVANGELICAL
CHRISTIAN
COLLEGE